Mission
The mission of the PJCC is to build a caring and connected community, develop leadership and strengthen Jewish identity and values in a center with an environment that is welcoming to all people at every stage of life.

PJCC History
Founded by a group of enthusiastic Jewish community members, the PJCC was brought to life in a rented house in Burlingame in 1948. The PJCC quickly became popular among many San Mateo County residents. With demand for the Center growing by leaps and bounds, the tiny house was soon too small to support the needs of its membership, so the Center was moved to a storefront in San Carlos. By 1960, due to the Peninsula’s increasing population, the Board of Directors eagerly set out to find a new home yet again. In 1963, the PJCC purchased and opened a much larger facility on a 4+ acre site in the Belmont hills where it remained for the next 40 years.

By 1993 our membership was once again exceeding capacity and our Board went in search of a more spacious home for the Center. A lease was signed with the City of Foster City in 1998, and the plan to build our new campus was born.

In May 2004, the PJCC opened its new doors in Foster City. Joining the PJCC on the North Peninsula Jewish Campus are the Ronald C. Wornick Jewish Day School, Jewish Community Federation, and Jewish Family and Children’s Services.

Indeed, the PJCC is proud of its diverse and multicultural membership and staff which, in keeping with our mission and guiding principles, reflect the diverse faiths and backgrounds of our Bay Area community.

Some traditional Jewish dietary restrictions are observed at the PJCC; see “General Policies/Dietary Guidelines” on page 3.

Jewish Holiday Guide
Throughout the year, certain Jewish holidays will affect Center hours; visit www.pjcc.org for these special holiday hours and descriptions. All Jewish holidays begin at sundown the night before the first day of the holiday (referred to as “Erev”).

There are also Jewish holidays that may not affect Center hours, but are significant and often acknowledged and celebrated at the PJCC. Below is a brief overview of the Jewish holidays.

Rosh Hashanah (New Year)
Rosh Hashanah, the Jewish New Year, occurs on the first and second days of the Hebrew month of Tishrei. In Hebrew, Rosh Hashanah means, literally, “head of the year.” The New Year is a joyous remembrance of the creation of the world, as well as a solemn time of reconciliation and confronting the past year. Just as many Americans use January 1 as a time to make resolutions, likewise, the Jewish New Year is a time of introspection, looking back at mistakes of the past year and planning changes to make in the New Year. A popular observance during this holiday is eating apples dipped in honey, a symbol of our wish for a sweet new year. There is a custom of sending friends and relatives New Year’s cards with special wishes for a happy and peaceful year and the greeting, Shanah Tovah (Happy New Year).

Yom Kippur (Day of Atonement)
Yom Kippur is the most solemn holiday of the Jewish year. It is traditional to fast from before sundown until after the following sunset, and spend the day in quiet contemplation and prayer, asking for forgiveness from those one has wronged. The greeting G’mar Chatimah Tovah (May you be sealed in for a good year) is offered, and the day ends at sundown with a festive break of the fast in the synagogue or at home.

Sukkot (Fall Harvest Festival)
Sukkot is both an agricultural and historical festival. Agriculturally, the holiday celebrates the final gathering of fruit and produce of the year. Historically, it represents the journey of the Jewish people through the desert after the Exodus from Egypt, during which time people lived in sukkot (booths such as the temporary shelter assembled in the Hamlin Garden).
Meals are eaten inside this hut for seven or eight days, which is decorated with palm branches and hanging fruit.

Shemini Atzeret (Rain Holiday)

Shemini Atzeret is a festival day at the end of Sukkot. It marks the end of the harvest season with prayers for just the right amount of rain in the coming year.

Simchat Torah (Rejoicing with the Torah)

Simchat Torah caps off the Jewish holiday season as the community ends its cycle of public Torah (the first five books of the Hebrew bible) readings and promptly begins again. The concluding passage in the last chapter of Deuteronomy retells the death of Moses and is immediately followed with the first chapter of Genesis, which recounts the world’s creation. Torah scrolls are removed from the ark while congregants sing, dance, and celebrate the cycle of readings from end to beginning, which symbolizes the unending nature of Torah learning.

Hanukkah (Festival of Lights)

Around 165 BCE, Judah the Maccabee led a victorious revolt against the Syrian Greeks who occupied Israel. When the Maccabees went to rededicate the temple, there was only enough oil for one day. Miraculously, it lasted eight days. The tone of Hanukkah is a festive one, and the only special ritual is to kindle the lights for eight days. Foods made with oil are eaten, especially latkes (potato pancakes) and sufganiyot (doughnuts), and dreidel games are played. It is also common for gifts to be exchanged on each night.

Tu B'Shevat (New Year of the Trees)

Tu B'Shevat is the 15th day of Shevat on the Hebrew calendar. The celebration is known as the birthday of the trees. In Israel it is a popular day for tree planting, while in the Diaspora (Jewish communities outside of Israel) the day is marked with festive meals with fruits and nuts, and by planting either trees or plants. Jewish National Fund tree certificates are often purchased so trees can be planted in Israel (Jewish National Fund, 42 East 69th St., New York, NY 10021).

Purim (Feast of Lots)

Purim comes on the 14th day of the Jewish month of Adar and is the most festive Jewish holiday, celebrating the liberation of the Jews of Persia as recounted in the Biblical book of Esther. The highlight of Purim is the reading and discussion of the Megillah (a special scroll of parchment), also known as “The Book of Esther.” This book retells the tale of a woman who, through her beauty and intelligence, captures the heart of the enemy and thereby saves her people from catastrophe. Wrong was righted and everyone joined together in jubilant celebration. It is customary to dress in costume, give to charity, and give edible gifts to family and friends.

Passover (Springtime Festival of Freedom)

Passover is our Springtime Festival of Freedom. At this time of year, Jews remember the escape (with Moses as leader) from slavery in Egypt to freedom in Israel. The primary celebration of Passover (Pesach) takes place in the home. The ritual dinner, which includes Matzah and other special foods, is called a Seder. It is a time of remembrance and thanksgiving. The traditional book used at the Seder is called the Haggadah. It tells of our history and has fables, songs, stories and prayers. Passover is not only about the past. Many people in the world are still not free. Jews cherish the gift of freedom and support efforts for everyone to live in a free world.

Yom HaShoah (Holocaust Remembrance Day)

Jews all over the world mourn the loss of six million Jewish lives lost during the Holocaust as part of Hitler’s genocidal “Final Solution.”

Yom HaZikaron (Israel Memorial Day)

On this Memorial Day, Israelis and Jews commemorate the soldiers who have fallen fighting for Israel’s independence and defending its security. This holiday falls the day before Israel Independence Day. In this way, a day of solemn commemoration can be followed by joyous celebration and song.

Yom HaAtzmaut (Israeli Independence Day)

This holiday celebrates the Independence of the Modern State of Israel. In Israel the day of Yom HaAtzmaut is marked with fireworks, barbecues and outdoor revelry. For Jewish communities outside of Israel it is a time to gather and celebrate our pride and connection to the Jewish homeland.

Lag B’Omer (33rd Day of the Omer)

This festive outdoor holiday is celebrated on the 33rd day of the Omer (a measure of barley), which is the period between Passover and Shavuot. Every night, from the second night of Passover to the night before Shavuot, the number of days of the Omer is counted. The counting is intended to remind us of the link between Passover, which commemorates the Exodus, and Shavuot, which commemorates the giving of the Torah.

Shavuot (The Festival of Weeks)

Shavuot is the holiday celebration of the giving of the Torah (the first five books of the Bible) from God to Moses, and is also the Festival of the First Fruits and Grains—the fulfillment of the promise of spring. The holiday is celebrated with special services in the synagogues and by partaking of dairy foods, especially blintzes. In the synagogue, the Ten Commandments and the story of Ruth are read. Many synagogues hold Confirmation ceremonies on or near Shavuot. Synagogues and Jewish institutions decorate with flowers and greenery at this time.

Tisha B’Av (The Fast of the 9th Day of Av)

An important fast day in the Jewish calendar is Tisha B’Av, the 9th day of the month of Av. On that day in the year 586 BCE, the Babylonians, led by King Nebuchadnezzar, besieged the Temple in Jerusalem and burned it to the ground. On that same day 656 years later (70 CE), the Second Temple was destroyed by the Romans. Like Yom Kippur, fasting on Tisha B’Av begins on the evening before the day itself and ends at nightfall twenty-five hours later.

Tu B’Av (The Day of Love)

Six days after the solemn fast day of Tisha B’Av comes Tu B’Av, a festival celebrating love! In ancient times, under the light of the full moon, women wishing to marry would wear white garments (so none would know who was rich or poor) and dance outside the Jerusalem city walls. Suitors—or so it was hoped—would dance after them. Today in Israel, Tu B’Av is occasion for a popular music festival on the shores of the Sea of Galilee. In the Jewish world, both in and outside Israel, it is a day to celebrate love and friendship. There is a connection between the last holiday of the year (Tu B’Av) and the first (Rosh HaShanah): both celebrate new beginnings.
